Important Parent/Guardian Information

P.A.L.S (Parents Against Low-Standards): A RoleModels University membership group that mandates the volunteer involvement of parent(s)/guardian(s) of R.U. students standing together as a united community against low standards in education, poverty, and poor living conditions. See P.A.L.

Parent/Guardian Permission

I desire for my child(ren) to become a student at RoleModels University and participate in the activities permissible by our physician. I understand that my child(ren) may travel on field trips, summer camp, as well as, used in photographs, videos, literature, web pages and news releases in local media and other media outlets both traditional and electronic.

I understand that failure to comply with the rules and regulations of RoleModels University may result in a cancellation of student enrollment and P.A.L.S. membership with no refund of dues. I understand that I will assume full responsibility for any accidents incurred thereby releasing RoleModels University, its' staff, facilitators, and volunteers and its' directors of all liability.
